

we can't possibly let Sinclair take such a biased view point. The television stations are public, NOT privately used air waves to promote electioneering